

THREE BATH-TUB POEMS

Sophie Drew

11/10/99

me ride sheep and you ride sheep and daddy ride sheep and we ride kangaroos at the kazoo and we ride elephants and they go for a walk and there's a bad man and he yells at his parents and he goes under the mud and finds a bug and me makes the bugs sad and then he splashes his mom and dad once a time there was nobody in the house nobody in the shower

 nobody in the bathtub somebody knock on the door and there was a policeman in a box there was a bone for a dog to eat there was a pancake pop-up there was the sun there was a bug up in the sky there was a spider nobody in the house
 nobody in the shower
 where the person go? I don't know nobody in the house said the girl
 nobody in the shower
 because we ate and a person come and kissed me on my leg once a time there was a slipper who talked and there was a beautiful butterfly a big mean guy came with a lady who danced on the pillows one fell me once a time there was a lady who bounced A B C D H Y J K M O P the pen started to cry and the baby cried and the people cried waaa waaa where the puppets go? and what happened? what happened?

 where the lady popped on the bed?
